UN, the privative or negative particle, is expressed in Hindustani by the following: a or an, nir, ni, ku or ku, be, na, bad, kam, la, ghair, bila, apa, dur, du, bin, bina, which may be seen by consulting those words that are compounded with the privatives dis, il, in, im, ir, less, mis, ex, out, ante, and the many examples which will occur below. As in English, these compounds may be formed from both adjectives and substantives almost at pleasure; and although it be not an easy matter to lay down exact rules for their formation, it will nevertheless be very soon attained by a little attention to, and practice in, the language.
